Important Notes for the Research Paper outline:

It is recommended for the rest of the research paper to be organized to contain the following sections: Introduction, Problem Definition, Research Objectives, Research Domain and Limitations, Research Methodology, Previous Studies, Proposed Approach, Applying the Proposed Approach, Validation of the Proposed Approach, Results and Discussion, Conclusion, Future Work, References.

These sections may differ from one research paper to another according to the research domain.

Important Notes for Formatting the Research Paper:

1. Research Paper Title: font type “Times New Roman”, font size 16, bold, centered.
2. Researchers Names and Their Academic Data: font type “Times New Roman”, font size 14, bold, centered.
3. Abstract: must be less than or equal 350 words.
4. Keywords: must be less than or equal 7 words.
5. All Headings: font type “Times New Roman”, font size 14, bold, centered.
6. Text: font type “Times New Roman”, font size 14.
7. Margins: 2.5 cm both sides.
8. Numbering Pages: all pages must have page number at the bottom.
9. Figures, Tables, Appendices: must have sequential numbers.
10. References: must be formatted using APA system, which is common in research community, or using any another referencing system. It is a necessity to unify the references formatting in the paper.
11. Number of Pages: must be less than or equal 40 pages.

The researcher should try to abide by these formatting guidelines as much as possible, knowing that the journal has a professional team that reviews and fixes formatting errors without affecting the content and objective of the research to help the researcher accomplish his task in completing the research formatting without additional fees.
